

Funded by the European Union

PRIVATE PÄDAGOGISCHE
HOCHSCHULE
AUGUSTINUM

Private University College of Teacher Education
Augustinum (PPH Augustinum)

PRIVATE PÄDAGOGISCHE HOCHSCHULE AUGUSTINUM

Initial teacher training for primary schools, in-service training and further education of teachers for all types of schools in Austria take place at the University Colleges of Teacher Education. Initial teacher training for secondary schools is offered both by Universities and University Colleges of Teacher Education.

Fields of study

The PPH Augustinum offers training in the area of Bachelor studies for the teaching profession at primary schools and Religious Education for primary and secondary schools. It also offers a Bachelor degree course for Early Childhood Education.

The PPH Augustinum furthermore offers Master studies for primary education, special needs education as well as Religious education studies. It is a private institution enjoying public recognition by the state of Austria. It is owned by the "Foundation for the University College of Education of the Roman-Catholic Diocese of Graz-Seckau".

The entire offer of studies follows the Bologna system architecture, including the European Credit Transfer System (ECTS). The language of instruction is German, yet we offer courses in English for our incoming students:

The PPH Augustinum is committed to innovation, to Christian social and moral values and to international horizons. Full account is taken of topical scholarly and scientific standards of teacher training, and lively interaction between all relevant disciplines is encouraged. The PPH Augustinum is a place of learning and teaching where "greatest challenge goes along with greatest respect" (A. S. Makarenko).

Departments

Two of the four departments of the PPH Augustinum offer academic degree courses leading to a full teaching qualification for Primary Schools and Roman Catholic Religious Education at Secondary Schools. The degree courses for Primary School education offer three types of specializations:

- German as a Second Language
- Inclusive Education
- Religious Education

As well as elective subjects in

- Cultural Education
- Early Childhood Education
- Social Education

In addition, the PPH Augustinum offers further education of teachers from primary to most types of secondary schools in a large variety of subjects, skills and competences, from short-term single courses to intensive four-semester study programmes.

Facts & Figures

TYPE OF SCHOOL
Private University
College of Teacher
Education

ESTABLISHED
2007

STUDENTS
Initial training:
900 in Bachelor and
Master studies
In-service & further
education courses:
several hundreds

STAFF
80

PPH Augustinum. Different to what you might believe.

A fourth department coordinates research and quality assurance activities.

Special features

- At PPH Augustinum the new type of teacher training is based on the Christian image of man and closely related to humanistic and democratic values, sustaining a spirit of mutual respect and dialogue.
- The largely modularised schedule guarantees that the contents of studies are not approached in a single-sided way but comprehensively with regard to their intrinsic connections.
- Special emphasis is put on innovative pedagogical movements.
- The PPH Augustinum has more than fifty academic partner institutions in more than twenty European countries, offering a wide framework for students' and teachers' mobility according to European exchange programmes.
- The PPH Augustinum focuses on pedagogical research, offering a rich variety of publications as well as cooperations with both national and international institutions in this field.

- While the majority of students is in the initial teacher training study for primary school teachers' qualifications, the PPH Augustinum is also specialised in training teachers for Catholic Religious Studies in Primary as well as Secondary Schools.

Contact

Private University College of Teacher Education

Augustinum

Lange Gasse 2 · OG 3
8010 Graz

T +43 (0)316 58 16 70-22

F +43 (0)316 58 16 70-11

office@pph-augustinum.at pph-augustinum.at

Information about international exchange programmes:

International Office

T +43 (0)316 58 16 70-19

F +43 (0)316 58 16 70-29

international.office@pph-augustinum.at

Expand
your horizons

Explore
new countries, new people

Experience yourself

Expand. Explore. Experience.

*Come to Graz and do a semester abroad
at PPH Augustinum!
Choose from a wide range of courses:*

Funded by
the European Union

PRIVATE PÄDAGOGISCHE
HOCHSCHULE
AUGUSTINUM